Why do I need to enhance my skills?

- ⇒ Activist Shareholders are calibrated. They demand the best returns on their investments & seek explanations for poor performance.
- ⇒ Class suits are allowed in the Companies Act, 2013 and are a real threat.
- ⇒ Agile media and Internet backed investment community, goes viral with adverse news the fastest. Which spells doom for the reputation of the company.
- ⇒ Regulatory authorities have become demanding in transparency and disclosures.
- ⇒ The role of Directors and other Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) have been well defined in the Companies Act, 2013 itself, hence there are no escape route.
- ⇒ Penal provisions and accountabilities have been increased substantially from previous Company Law regime.
- ⇒ Ever evolving new financial products and cross border business pose new and unprecedented threats, of foreign laws.
- ⇒ Financial and reputational stake of the company and individually of the directors are the foremost compelling reasons to become an alert and responsible Director.
